No stopping the Slack Shooters

IF EVER a team were badly named it has to be the Slack Shooters, who proved to be anything but in the Fantasy League.

Congrats to Mark for maintaining a hot pace throughout the season and clinging on to top spot, despite some desperate efforts by those behind to close the gap.

And talking of hot things, our champion also takes a pat on the back for completing a charity walk over hot coals in aid of Neurocare, whose scanner saved the life of one of his colleagues at work.

Mark says it's easy when you know how: 'Imagine holding a jacket spud from the oven – if you hold it you'll get singed, if you juggle it from hand to hand ... well, you get the picture, so if you ever find yourself walking on hot coals.

Meanwhile, in the Fantasy League we must also congratulate Chris Nash for holding on to the runners-up spot, and third-placed Simon Twose for being the first to offer gracious congratulations to the winner on the League message board (what do you mean, you didn't know there was a message board).

BankC missed the first three weeks of the season and still managed fourth place, and Music Mazza Marian Hellen clinched fifth after a season-long tussle with Graham and Issie.

Slats left the country and promptly slipped to mid-table mediocrity – not bad considering he didn't do one transfer all season!

Everybody back next season with a clean slate?

Report:

A fine display in their final game saw BBC storm to a 7-1 victory against Rock, lifting them to 5th in the table, their highest position in three years.

In the pouring rain a hat-trick by Russ Pope and goals from Dan Lee, BankC Anthony Davies, plus an own goal sealed a fantastic win.

Bluntisham played good, flowing football from the start with strong performances all over the pitch

How they finished

AFC Rock	18	4	2	12	-33	14

based upon a solid performance at the back, with our defence of Mark Taylor, Sparky, Al Campbell and Steve Hutch dominating the Rock attack for much of the game, thus enabling the midfield to control the game.

Paul Davies was full of running in midfield, whilst wide Dan Lee and James Prior created havoc down both wings. Popey and Holly worked hard to close down their defence.

Pick of the goals was a raking cross from Dan Lee into the path of Popey, who controlled the ball to slot past the keeper from 10 yards. Anthony Davies knocked the ball wide to Dan Lee and continued his run into the six-yard box to volley home from another great cross from Dan.

A great save at the end of the game by Toby restricted the visitors to a single score.
